SPECIAL EDUCATION

Special education caters to students with a variety of challenges such as visual impairments, hearing impairments, autism spectrum disorders, Downe's Syndrome, cognitive challenges and attention deficit disorders. In Barbados, the models used to provide special education include dedicated special schools; dedicated units attached to main-stream schools; inclusion units and remedial programmes.

In the public sector, the four primary schools offering dedicated special education in attached units are Charles F. Broome Memorial, Eagle Hall, Ellerton and All Saints', while the three dedicated special schools are Erdiston, Ann Hill and Irving Wilson. The four registered private special schools are the Learning Centre, Challenor Creative Arts and Training Centre, John Payne School for Exceptional Children and the School House for Special Needs.
